AMER REGIONAL UPDATE SUMMARY

Intro or an overarching key insight is positioned here

MARKET LANDSCAPE
Jeffrey Fidacaro

▶ SUCCESSSES		▶ CHALLENGES
Channel	The Channel generated 58% of New Logos, the highest proportion reported, including for XL and STAR accounts.	Digital Marketing	Increase understanding of the combinations of the digital marketing tactics that will yield better opportunity conversion and sales pipeline growth.
STAR<sup>1</sup>	The STAR engine is continuing to improve with accounts landing higher and expanding faster in terms of MRC and deployments; STAR accounts also take relatively similar times to close vs. non-STARs.	Sales Coverage	Increase understanding of the contribution field/ corporate sales teams make to land and expand channel new logos.
Customer Expansion	Equinix is continuing to increase the deployments of our customer base, with customers in all 3 regions now representing 62% of revenue, up 1% Q/Q.	End User Insight	Improve channel data visibility with respect to bookings, deployments and churns of the ultimate end users, not the billed partners (Channel Acceleration Committee is taking action).
MQL	Demand capture is increasing, with 43% Q/Q growth in MQLs, leading to 13% Q/Q growth in Stage 2 opportunities.	Next 10 Metros	Consistent alignment of CRO resources upon agreed prioritization of metros (Next ~10 Metros project).

SPECIAL UPDATES »

- Revise how EQIX reports verticals, & provide alternative market verticals to ensure companies are grouped based on behavioral similarities.
- Creating the CRO action plan to boost growth in the "Next ~10 Metros;" AMER: Atlanta, Los Angeles, Toronto; EMEA: Madrid, Paris, Zurich; APAC: Melbourne, Osaka, Seoul.
- Drive digital demand generation and awareness to improve pipeline progression of MQLs to converted opportunities.
- Segmentation uplift identifying previously underscored firms, adding ~1k more STARs (31st Aug) and supporting 2021 sales planning to improve coverage.

3Q FOCUS AREAS »

- Project Lightning Launching in September that positions Equinix as a digital infrastructure company.
- Packet Re-Brand Launching Equinix branded version of Packet in limited availability release September / October, aligned with Lightning positioning).
- GXI 4.0 GXI 4.0 (October) commenting on COVID-19 impact and trends in new digital format to encourage greater engagement (aligned with Lightning positioning).

COLOCATION MARKET SIZE & FORECAST

No change in forecasts since April update

► Revenue / Growth Opportunity by Market Segment

► Carrier Neutral Retail (CN)

► Hyperscale Wholesale (HW)

KEY INSIGHTS

1. Carrier neutral adding $9B from '19-'24; 95% of total retail growth – largest increase of all colo market segments.
2. Tier 1 metros continue to dominate in AMER & EMEA, making up ~2/3 of carrier neutral opportunity with no foreseeable changes.
3. APAC expected to comprise 43% of total carrier neutral dollar growth (vs 36% in prior 4 yrs) from robust uptake in emerging countries (i.e. CN & IN).
4. Hyperscale wholesale represents a $4B growth opportunity with top 5 countries (US, CN, UK, DE, SG) making up ~80% of total.

KEY INSIGHTS

1. AMER outperformed on a stated basis, and continued to grow well above market at 6% excluding the impact from Verizon churn
2. Continued broad outperformance in EMEA, outgrowing the market by nearly 4x with double-digit growth in AM, LD, PA and outside FLAP markets
3. Softness in SG, SY, HK, owing partly to capacity constraints, contributed to underperformance in APAC versus rest of the market

KEY INSIGHTS

- Overall F500 penetration decreased slightly with the loss of four customers, all outside the top 250.
- Some Lighthouse losses remain at Equinix despite not having a direct billing relationship: Fox novated under Disney and Analog Devices is now served via AT&T.
- Equinix has nearly 50% of the AMER HQ'ed G2000 companies as customers, but only 23% of those based in APAC, and 45% of those in EMEA.
- Proportionally, Equinix is underweight for ENTs in the G2000 (33% of our G2000 CUSTs are ENTs vs. 64% of all of G2000 are ENT), but 12 of the 13 adds in 2Q20 are ENTs.
